FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL
MARKET WAS FIRM
New York, July 19.—Wall Street's behavior in an early session of unfavorable domestic economic problems again was indicated today by further strength and greater activity of dealings on the stock exchange.

Disregarding additional widespread panic of low domestic oil, the market, however, was a marked revival of interest in foreign oil.

The latter, Mexican Petroleum was most conspicuous, asserting some of last month's strength at an extreme advance of nine points and a net gain of six points. Pan-American, General Agent and some of the domestic oil, notably Canadian, were in fair demand.

A four per cent. rate for all loans ruled through the session, but short and long maturities held at their earlier rates of the previous day, with more liberal purchases of commercial paper and bank acceptances.

Exchange London fortified much of yesterday's gain and allied bills were reactionary, losing 20 to 25 points. German marks again fell below .80 and allied currencies, Swedish krona, most of the north European remittances, showed firmness in Swiss, Spanish and Greek quotations.
